Companion Animal Project Group Meeting, May 18th

The Hamilton County 4-H Citizenship Club's Companion Animal Project Group will meet monthly this summer to learn about various animals in exciting animal presentations by local experts. The first animal program is Saturday, May 18 at 1:30 p.m., Extension office. UT-Chattanooga Biology Professor Dr. Thomas Wilson will present information on snakes. All 4-H members (and parents/guardians) are invited to learn about snakes - how to select and care for a pet snake, what to do if you find a snake in your yard, and how to tell if a snake you find in our area is venomous or non-venomous. 4-H members can learn about snakes, dogs, rabbits, cats and other animals through this project group. There is no cost for 4-H members and parents/guardians to attend.

Piggy Bank Pageant Winners

Congratulations to the following winners, 4th graders: 1st Ansley Johnson, 2nd Hannah Parr, 3rd Austin King; and 5th graders - 1st London Brevard, 2nd Mallory Miles
