Congratulations!

Logan Johnson chosen as a Finalist for the Centennial 4-H Roundup!

Congratulations to Logan Johnson of Hamilton County, who was chosen as a state finalist in the Nutrition, Health and Fitness project area! He will compete at Tennessee 4-H Roundup, to be held at UT Knoxville July 17-21. This will be the 100th 4-H Roundup in Tennessee!

4-H Junior Camp 2023

Hamilton County's junior camp week at Camp Clyde Austin in Greeneville was a hit! Campers had tons of activities to choose from, including Gaga ball, axe throwing, the rifle and archery ranges, wildlife (including snakes), Health Rocks! activities, driving go-karts, a talent show, an 80's party (complete with costume contest), a carnival (including cotton candy) and, of course, lots of swimming. Can't wait for next year!

4-H Day Camp

4-H Day Camp 2023 was a week full of fun, despite the rain! Campers tried Suminagashi paper marbling with Master Gardener and Artist Linda Miller, examined honeybees up close with Dr. Elise Chapman from UTC, learned how to avoid poisoning with Extension educator Jillian Saraney, met a service dog in training with Emily Peoples, learned about milk goats with Jennifer Grosskreutz, learned about dairy and recipes for dairy products with Hamilton County Dairy Chairman Beau Duvall, did backyard STEM activities, and played lots of games! 4-H'ers Emmett Owens and John Wood also stopped by to talk with the kids about opportunities available in 4-H in the Consumer Decision Making contest and FTC Robotics.

June Dairy Month Spreads the Word about the Benefits of Dairy!

Congratulations to Hamilton County's 2023 Dairy Chairman, Beau Duvall, who appeared on TV (including Local 3's "3 Plus You," pictured above), toured a dairy farm, prepared dairy treats at local farmer's markets and at 4-H day camp, posted weekly dairy trivia questions on Facebook, and otherwise helped to spread the word about the many benefits dairy foods can give as part of a healthy diet!
