

Get Involved in 4-H This Year!

The new year is full of possibilities to participate in fun 4-H activities! Create a poster for the annual 4-H Art Poster contest, apply for Tennessee 4-H

Congress, register for 4-H Chick Chain, start an application for Junior High Academic Conference at UTK, work on completing your 4-H portfolio, participate in a Citizenship Club service project, learn about animal care with the Vet Science club or fungi with the Gardening Club, start preparing for the 4-H Wildlife contest coming up this spring, learn about horses with the Mane Attraction Horse Club, or join the Honor Club!

4-H Art Poster Contest

Entries due by January 29!

2023 State Winner - Digital Poster
by Richard Shank, Hamilton County
4-H Robotics Club

2023 State Winner - Regular Poster
by Eleni Martinez, North Hamilton
County Elementary School

The annual 4-H Art Poster Contest lets youth in grades 4th-12th learn about visual communications and show off their artistic abilities! Two contests are available - a digital poster contest, and a regular poster contest - and youth can enter a poster in each of these competitions. Turn in your poster this month (by 1/29/24) by bringing your regular poster to the Extension Office or turning it in at a club meeting or by emailing your digital poster to HamiltonCounty4H@tennessee.edu (in PDF or PNG format).

community

The 4-H Citizenship Club meets January 9 at 5:00 p.m. This club is open to all youth in grades 4th-12th in Hamilton County. At the January meeting: Learn about 4-H Junior High Academic Conference, Chick Chain, and Tennessee 4-H Congress. Applications for all of these activities are due early in 2024. Don't forget to turn in entries for the 4-H Art Poster Contest at this meeting! Art Poster Contest rules are available at the Extension Office website. Learn about the Citizenship Club's winter service project at this meeting, and plan to participate!

Citizenship Club meetings are held at the Extension Office, 5-6:30 p.m. 6183 Adamson Circle in Chattanooga, just off Bonny Oaks Drive. Questions? Call the office 423-209-8560.

4-H Gardening Club meets January 29 at 4:30

The 4-H Gardening Club is studying fungi - including bread mold. Come to the January 29 meeting to learn how to use a microscope, examine the fungi grown by club members this month, and learn more about this fascinating organism. We'll also learn how to keep food safe! Youth in Hamilton County in grades 4th-8th are welcome to participate in this club, and there is no cost. Meetings are held 4:30-6:00 p.m. at the Extension Office. Call the office with any questions 423-209-8560.

4-H Veterinary Science Club meets February 1 at 6:00

Interested in animals and veterinary science? Hamilton County youth in grades 4th-12th are invited to join the 4-H Veterinary Science Club, Chattanooga Chapter. This club participates in the monthly Tennessee 4-H Virtual Vet Science Club, led by state 4-H Specialist Lynne Middleton. The club is a collaboration between Tennessee 4-H and the UTK College of Veterinary Medicine. Meetings are held the first Thursday of each month, on the 3rd floor of the Extension Office, 6183 Adamson Circle, at 6:00-7:30 p.m. There is no cost to participate, and no advance registration is needed. Questions? Call the office 423-209-8560.

4-H Mane Attraction Horse Club meets February 5 at 6:30

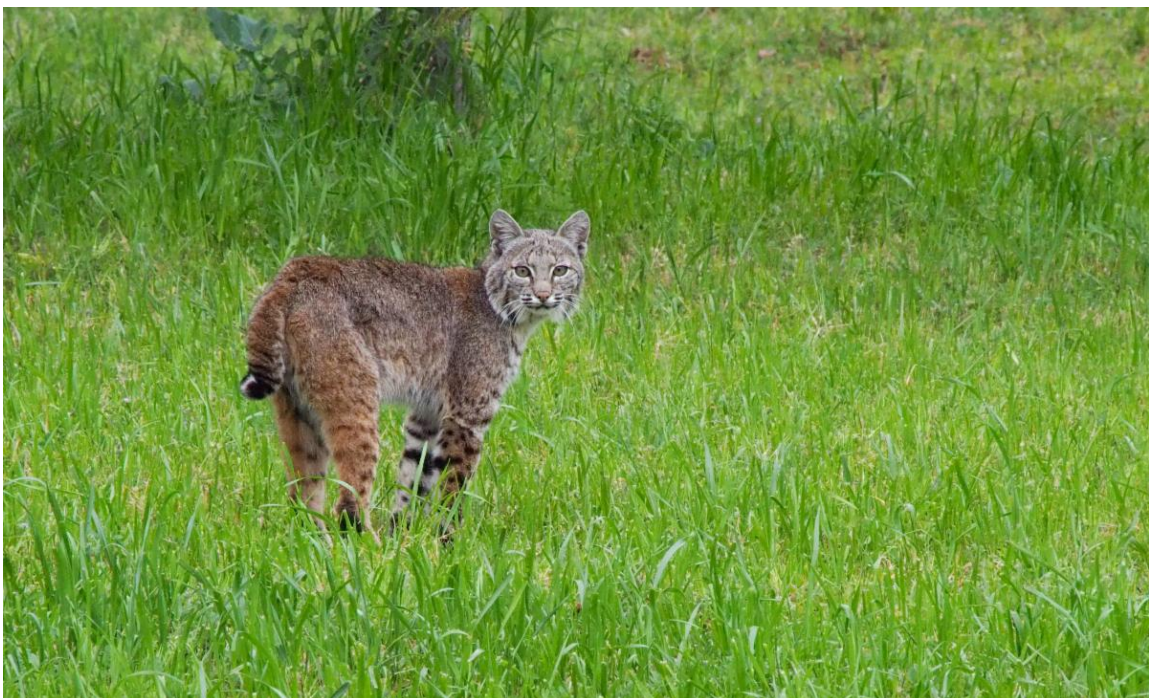

The 4-H Mane Attraction Horse Club meets on the first Monday of each month at 6:30 p.m. at Saddle Pals Riding Club in Soddy Daisy. Meetings focus on the study of horses, rather than horseback riding, and help members prepare for competitions through 4-H that test knowledge of horses. Hamilton County youth in grades 4th-12th are welcome to participate. Interested in attending the next club meeting? Call the Extension Office 423-209-8560.
